

DIGITAL BANKING (ONLINE AND MOBILE) TERMS AND CONDITIONS

These Terms and Conditions, along with the Guides, as may be amended or replaced, are the agreement ("Agreement") that governs your use of Citizens State Bank's Mobile Banking Service ("Service"). "Guides" means any user guides, help files, software or other instructions, including those online, relating to the Service. The Terms and Conditions also contain important disclosure information relating to electronic fund transfers made through the Service. "Mobile Banking" is banking conducted from a device that you have registers with CSB. By subscribing to the Service or using the Service to access Account information, or to make any transfer between Accounts or payment to a third-party Payee(s), you agree to the terms of this Agreement. "Payee" is the person or entity to which you wish a bill payment to be directed or is the person or entity from which you receive electronic bills, as the case may be. Access to Account information, transfers between Accounts and payments to Payees drawn on or debited against your Accounts, is referred to as "Transactions." By using any new services that are made available, you agree to be bound by any terms and conditions that we communicate to you concerning those services.

ACCOUNT(S): mean the checking, regular savings or savings with limited check writing privileges (money market type) accounts with us, including your designated Payment Account(s). "Payment Account(s)" means the checking account(s) from which you have asked us to make Online Bill Payments, and the account services charges and other fees related to the Service will be deducted. "Deposit Account(s)" mean Accounts. In our sole discretion, we may refuse to include, or may exclude from continued use, an Account in the Service. The words "we", "us" and "our" refer to Citizens State Bank, Gridley, KS, the bank which holds the Deposit Accounts accessed by the Service, and any agent, independent contractor or assignee CSB may, in its sole discretion, involve in the provision of the Service. The words "you" and "your" refer to each person subscribing to the Service and each person who uses the Service with the permission of the subscriber.

BUSINESS DAYS: are Monday through Friday. Federal Reserve holidays are not included. You can use the Service on the days and during the hours specified in the Guides, except during maintenance periods. However, we can process Transactions only on Business Days. Much of our relationship with you is regulated by state and federal law, including the Uniform Commercial Code, and regulations of the Federal Reserve System, other regulatory agencies and clearinghouse associations. These laws and regulations, as well as the terms of the Agreement, may change from time to time without notice to you unless required by law. Your continued use of the Service following receipt of the Agreement or notice of a change is considered acceptance of the Agreement or change.

INFORMATION AUTHORIZATION: You agree that we may obtain and review your credit bureau report, from time to time. We may obtain information regarding your accounts with Payees in order to facilitate proper handling and crediting of your payments. You authorize us to provide updated customer information, including, but not limited to, name, address, telephone numbers and e-mail addresses to your Payees.

We encourage you to keep this Agreement for your records. If you have any questions, ask contact us.

You are responsible for all Transactions you initiate or authorize using the Service. If you permit any other person to use the Service or your Password, you will have authorized that person to access your Accounts and you are responsible for any Transactions that person initiates or authorizes from your Accounts.

We reserve the right to implement additional security procedures, such as limiting the frequency and dollar amount of Transactions from your Accounts for security reasons.

Transfers may be scheduled for future dates, so long as there are available funds at the time of the transfer. ONLINE BILL PAYMENT: Make payments from your Payment Account(s) in the amounts you request to persons or businesses in the United States

REQUIREMENTS: If you choose, you have the ability to pay your bills through our CSB Bill Pay service. It is required that you have at least one checking account with us. Savings accounts are not eligible for CSB Bill Pay service. You can arrange at your option, for the payment of your current, future and recurring bills from your checking account. You must designate the complete name of the payee, the account number, and the payee's remittance address, all exactly as shown on the billing statement or invoice; the amount of the payment; and the date you want the payment processed. If the date you want the payment processed is not a business day, your payment will be processed the previous business day. By using the CSB Bill Pay service option, you agree that, based upon instructions received under your CSB Internet Customer ID and Password (PIN) we can charge your designated account by electronic transfer, "no signature required draft" (paper check) or by debiting and remitting funds on your behalf.

SCHEDULING INTERNET BILL PAY PAYMENTS: Bills are processed twice daily, Monday through Friday, at 2:00AM (CST) and again at 12:00PM (CST). Bills are not processed on Saturdays, Sundays, or on bank holidays. If the payee is to be paid by paper check you understand and agree that paper checks are mailed to the payee and that you must allow for normal postal delivery time. If the payee is to be paid electronically (as indicated on the CSB Internet Bill Pay list), you understand and agree that the payee may not receive the payment up to 3 to 5 business days after the payment is debited from your account. You understand and agree that we are not responsible for the timely delivery of mail or the improper transmission or handling of payment by a third party such as the failure of the bill payment payee to properly post a payment to your account. We will not be obligated to make a payment unless your designated checking account and has sufficient funds or credit available to pay the bill on the payment date. Funds for electronic bill payments will be withdrawn from your designated checking account on the scheduled payment date. If there are not enough available funds in the designated checking account for electronic payments, the payment will attempt to be processed each day until there are enough funds or the payment is deleted or rescheduled in the CSB Mobile Bill Pay service. Bills paid by paper check will be withdrawn from your designated checking account through the normal check clearing process.

STOP OR CHANGE INSTRUCTIONS: You have the right to stop or change any scheduled bill payment. However, you must cancel a payment by no later than 12:00PM (CST), on the Payment Date, by using the CSB Mobile Bill Pay service.

In addition, you may not make a payment of alimony, maintenance, child support, taxes, or other governmental fees or court-directed payments through the Service. In no event shall we be liable for any claims or damages resulting from your scheduling Prohibited Payments. The Service Guarantee as it applies to any late payment related charges is void when Prohibited Payments are scheduled and/or processed by the Service. We have no obligation to research or resolve any claim resulting from the scheduling and/or processing of Prohibited Payments by the Service. All research and resolution for any misapplied, mis-posted or misdirected payments will be your sole responsibility.

PAYEE LIMITATION: We shall have a reasonable opportunity to act before changes to your Payee list are effective. While most Payees can be reached through the Service, we reserve the right to refuse to allow you to designate any particular Payee or classes of Payees. We will notify you if we decide to refuse to pay a Payee designated by you. This notification is not required if you attempt to make a Prohibited Payment.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO SCHEDULE TIMELY PAYMENT: It is your responsibility to transmit your Payment Instructions in such a manner that your bills are paid on time. You are responsible for any late payment charge, finance charge, penalty or default that may result from your failure to transmit Payment Instructions in sufficient time.

ADDRESS OR BANKING CHANGES: It is your sole responsibility to ensure that the current contact information in your user profile is current and accurate. This includes, but is not limited to, name, address, and phone numbers and e-mail addresses. Changes can be made either through the Service or by contacting Internet Banking Customer Service. Any changes in your Payment Account(s) must also be made in accordance with the procedures contained in the Help files. All changes are effective immediately for Scheduled Payments and future payments from the updated Payment Account information. The Service is not responsible for any payment processing errors or fees incurred if you do not provide accurate Payment Account or contact information.

SERVICE GUARANTEE: Due to circumstances beyond our control, particularly delays in handling and posting payments by Payees or financial institutions, some Transactions may take longer to be credited to your Payee. We will bear responsibility for any late payment related charges up to $50.00 should a payment post after its Due Date as long as the payment was scheduled in accordance with the section entitled Payment Scheduling in this Agreement.

You agree to notify us promptly if you receive notice from a Payee that a payment you made using the Service has not been completed or remains unpaid. We will not be liable to you for any damages to the extent that your failure or delay in notifying us that a bill payment was not made prevents us from avoiding or alleviating such damages.

RETURNED PAYMENTS: We will not be liable to you if a Payee cannot or will not accept a payment made through the Service. You understand that Payees, the United States Postal Service and/or other mail or delivery services may return payments to the Service for various reasons such as, but not limited to, Payee's forwarding address expired; your account number with Payee not valid; Payee is unable to locate your account; or your account with Payee is paid in full. We will attempt to resolve the problem and return the payment to the Payee or we will void the payment and credit your Payment Account.

FUNDS AVAILABILITY: Funds are available for transfers and payments in accordance with our Funds Availability Policy contained in the Deposit Agreement. If there are not sufficient available funds in the Deposit Account to make transfers or Payment Account to make Scheduled Payments, we may either refuse to honor transfer or payment requests or may make the transfer or payment and thereby overdraw the Deposit Account or Payment Account. In either event, you will pay on demand by us the negative balance and are responsible for any insufficient funds and return item charges. If we refuse to honor a transfer or payment request due to insufficient available funds, the request will be canceled and we will not make the transfer or payment at a later date.

LIMITATION ON FREQUENCY OF TRANSACTIONS: There are no limitations on the number of Transactions that can be made during any time period to or from any Account, except as provided by federal regulations limiting preauthorized transfers. By federal regulation, you are limited during any statement cycle to six preauthorized or automatic transfers (three of which may be by check, draft or similar order) if the Account is a savings or a savings with limited check writing privileges (money market type) account. Online bill payments and transfers between your Deposit Accounts are considered preauthorized transfers.

DISCLOSURE OF ACCOUNT INFORMATION TO THIRD PARTIES: We will disclose information to third parties about your Account or the Transactions you make: When it is necessary for completing Transactions or activating additional services; or In order to verify the existence and condition of your Account for a third party, such as a credit bureau, merchant, Payee or holder of a check issued through the Service; or In order to comply with government agency or court orders; or If you give us your permission; or In accordance with our current Privacy Policy Notice.

You may cancel or edit a Scheduled Payment through the Service until midnight Eastern Time of the fifth Business Day before the Scheduled Due Date. There is no charge for canceling or editing a Scheduled Payment.

STOPPING PAYMENT THROUGH US: If it is too late to cancel a Scheduled Payment online through the Service as described above, or if there is a failure in the connection to Check Free prior to the date the payment is processed, you may be able to stop payment through us.

To stop payment, you must call or write us at the phone number or address listed on the first page of this Agreement. Your stop payment request must include your Payment Account number, the Payee, the exact amount of the payment and the Scheduled Payment Date. We will charge you our then current stop payment fee.

Your ability to stop payment depends upon the payment method and whether or not a draft has cleared your Payment Account. Online Banking Customer Service will identify whether the payment was made by electronic fund transfer, draft or Check.

We shall have a reasonable opportunity to act before the stop payment order, renewal or termination is effective. We may honor a stop payment order on an Account by any account holder or authorized signer, regardless of who initiated the payment. We may terminate oral stop payment orders without notice in 14 days from the date requested, unless confirmed in writing. A written stop payment order will remain in effect for a minimum of 180 days from the effective date. If you wish to renew or terminate a stop payment order, you must do so in writing to us. A stop payment order may be terminated only by the account holder who placed it.

ONLINE DRAFT PAYMENTS: The stop payment order, renewal or termination in no event will be effective if received after 10:00 a.m. Central Time on the Banking Day following the Banking Day we receive the draft or check for payment. See your Deposit Agreement for other provisions relating to stop payments on Draft Payments.

BANK'S LIABILITY FOR FAILURE TO MAKE TRANSFERS OR PAYMENTS: If we do not complete a Transaction to or from your Payment Account on time or in the correct amount according to this Agreement, we will be liable for your actual losses, if any, as provided by applicable laws and regulations. However, there are some exceptions.

We shall not be liable and any Service Guarantee shall be void if we are unable to complete a Scheduled Payment or other Transaction if for example, but without limitation: Through no fault of ours, you do not have enough available funds in your Account to complete a Transaction on that Account. The Transaction would be over the limit of your available credit limit if you have overdraft protection. You have not properly followed the Guides or the Agreement for using the Service, or if your computer, software, related equipment, electrical power or telephone service fails or malfunctions. The Payee information necessary to complete the payment stored on your PC's hard drive and/or the host has been lost. You do not authorize a payment soon enough for your payment to be received by the Payee by the Due Date. Withdrawals from any of your Accounts have been prohibited by a court order such as a garnishment or other legal process, or the Account is in dispute or restricted for any other reason.

The Service, payment processing center or your equipment was not working properly and either the breakdown was apparent, you knew about the breakdown, or we had advised you about the breakdown when you started the Transaction. A Payee does not accept, mishandles or delays in handling payments. You have not provided the correct and complete Payment Account information, Payee name, address, telephone number, and account information or payment amount. Circumstances beyond our control, including, without limitation, fire, casualty, breakdown in equipment or failure of telecommunications or data processing services, sabotage, labor shortage, lockout, strike, unavoidable accident, acts of God, riot, war or the enactment, issuance or operation of any adverse governmental law, ruling, regulation, order or decree, or an emergency or catastrophe that prevents or materially interferes with the Bank's normal operations, prevents us from the processing of any Transaction or performance of the Service. Delays or losses of payments caused by the U.S. Postal Service or other commercial delivery service. There may be other exceptions stated in our Agreement with you.

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY: If the Service is not available due to malfunction of the system or circumstances beyond our control, you agree to access accounts and pay bills by other means such as a bank branch, ATM, telephone, check, credit or debit card. CSB will assist you with these alternate means. We shall not be liable for any expenses you incur as a result of using alternate means of access or payments.

Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement or by law, we are not responsible for any loss, injury, or damage, whether direct, indirect, special, consequential or exemplary damages, including lost profits (even if advised of the possibility thereof) caused by the Service or the use of the Service or arising in any way out of the installation, operation, or maintenance of your computer or related equipment.

LIABILITY FOR UNAUTHORIZED TRANSACTIONS: Tell us AT ONCE if you believe there has been an unauthorized transaction from your Account or if you discover your Password or other means of access to the Service or your Accounts has been lost or stolen. Telephoning is the best way of keeping your possible losses down. You could lose all the money in your Account plus your maximum overdraft line of credit. If you tell us within 2 Business Days, you can lose no more than $50 if someone deposited, withdrew or transferred funds without your permission. If you do NOT tell us within 2 Business Days and we can prove we could have stopped someone from transferring funds without your permission if you had told us, you could lose as much as $500. Also, if your Account statement shows Transactions that you did not authorize, tell us at once. If you do not tell us within 60 days after the statement was mailed to you or within 60 days after you were notified by e-mail that your statement was available online, you may not get back any money you lost after the 60 days if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from taking the money if you had told us in time. If good reason (such as a long trip or a hospital stay) kept you from telling us, we will extend the time periods.

ERROR RESOLUTION PROCEDURES: In cases of errors or questions about your electronic transactions:

Call us or write us at the phone number or address listed on the first page of this Agreement as soon as you can, if you think your statement is wrong or if you need more information about a Transaction listed on the statement. 2. Describe the error or the Transaction you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
3. Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.
4. If you tell us orally, we may require that you send your complaint or question in writing within 10 Business Days.

Generally, we will tell you the results of our investigation within 10 Business Days after we hear from you and will correct any error promptly. If we need more time, however, we may take up to 45 calendar days to investigate your complaint or question. If we decide to do this, we will provisionally recredit your Account within 10 Business Days for the amount you think is in error so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within 10 Business Days, we may not recredit your Account. If notice of an error involves a new account, the applicable time period for acting shall be 90 calendar days in place of 45 days. For new accounts we may take up to 20 business days to credit your account for the amount you think is in error.

If we decide that there was no error, we will send you a written explanation within 3 Business Days after we finish our investigation and will revoke any provisional credit to your Account. You may ask for copies of documents that we used in our investigation.
